Things got a little weird the day I walked off the workers only level stopped washing and just started mopping and emptying the sink and refilling it more than once and I got extremely backed up. Dave the Manager was being hassled by a coworker and they were just being an assistive. It wasn't a good sign and it didnt go away. I didnt show concern and I didn't say anything. Two people that started working there about the same time quit also. Without any indication of being upset. Harassment and being immature intended and I don't put with it at all it was insulting and very unprofessional. We were very short on workers and I don't know that this was a common reaction that is done to show there displeased. I am hoping I can get a job elsewhere I wasn't planning on making another attempt elsewhere and file this with the ethics employment board but I didnt report this issue with the manager being that he was also being mistreated

Hello Ashor,

I have been informed by the client that you walked off job yesterday 10/17 at 7pm, your original shift end time would have been 10:30pm. Due to this job abandonment, you have been placed under review, and removed from any future shifts you had scheduled.

Please reach out to the main office at 415-431-8826 ext, with a valid reason for your walk off.

Best,
