on for tomorrow and Thursday what happened?

Hi Adam I am taking classes and my performance schedule changed. We have to block tomorrow and Thursday

Hello, ok thank you for replying.
I understand life happens and I appreciate you informing us.
Please note this makes for your 3rd and 4th last minute minute call off since 10/31 which is just about 1 months time. I am forced to issue a warning here as further attendance occurrences will result in additional disciplinary action ranging from a final warning and up to TSC no longer being able to offer you work assignments. Thank you in advance for your understanding and perseverance to succeed.
