

Doan &gt;

Please note that the agreed schedule was 6am to 430pm and we agreed to accommodate you to 230pm our time.

Moving forward we need you to please abide by this agreement as we should not be having to address this with you after today.

The only justifiable grace period for arriving early or late would be a five minute max grace period

Please do not clock in earlier than this or later than this.

Delivered

There was NEVER an agreed time.. I mentioned this numerous times.. I take offense when people assume things and speak to me like I'm 6 years old and question my work ethic...
