In some things he is very initiative, as I mentioned before always staying busy. I would love to him felling more confident while making decisions and choosing which task is more important and specially when is a right time to do it (like sweeping/cleaning storages not during lunch service like it was done before or cleaning islands and missing check in on the kitchen) I do see improvements in these areas! Keep up! Any questions - here to discuss and support! Again I wanted to say thank you for his dedicated work! There is always room for growth and improvements !
