Hi Jaime,

Just to follow up: Marcelis texted me about running 10 min behind and I asked him if he knows what number he should be calling when he runs late. He replied yes, after which I believe he contacted TCS. 👍 But he didn't actually get to clock in until 30 min after his shift starts.

No action needed for now, but wanted to document and keep track of his tardiness since today is the first Friday that we are doing this earlier schedule. We'll be keeping an eye out to see whether this becomes a repetitive issue.

Thank you,

Hello Nate,

Please be advised Marcelis called me a few minutes ago to state he is running about 10 minutes late.
