

Can you give me a call I'm fucking frustrated with this company.

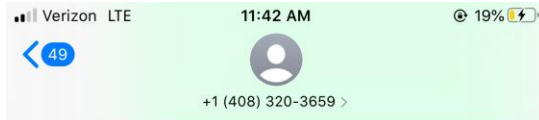

As mentioned in my last text: please include your name in your texts

EMILIANO! I went in at 3:30 to the office to speak to someone your recruiter told me that I should look for another job and as I was leaving told me that I was terminated.

And that gives you grounds to message me with foul language

Especially if I was not involved in the situation and have not heard about what's going on?

Fuck this! When can I get my check this is bull shit I was never under the impression I was working for $22 an hour as a lead cook when you offered dishwashers 20.

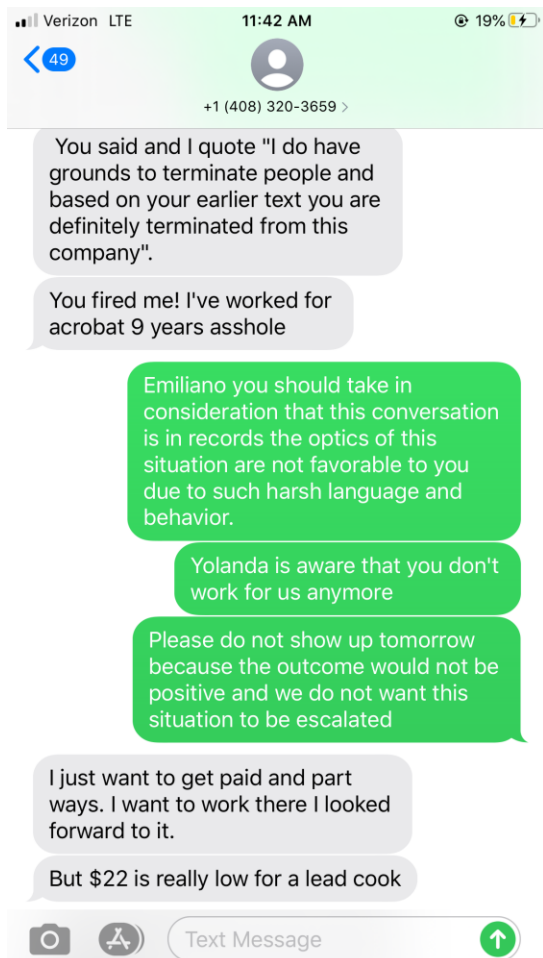

These last three days I've busted my ass just to find out I'm only getting $22 an hour

$20 dishwashing jobs are for Facebook which you turned down because as you mentioned before, this is "embarrassing" for you and took a job with a different client instead. You are advised when you start that pay rate ranges depending on the client. It sounds to me like you have resigned from this company so we will take these text messages as your resignation and will make sure to pay you according to the timeframe established by the law

LoL. Ok let me know.

Sorry, Emiliano but you cannot show up to work tomorrow. There is no way you are going to get paid without you working for Acrobatt. Let me set up a interview with my boss so we can hire you. I will call you tomorrow to give you a time.

Ok thanks, No worries I'll be looking forward to your text. Goodnight
