Hi Ivy,

I am moving out of state in a week so I am resigning from The Service Companies.

Thanks,

Kim Visser

Hello!

If you are receiving this email, that means our records indicate that you either need to take your food handler's card examination for the first time, or your certification is expiring and it is time to update your qualification. Please remember that to work shifts with us, you are required to have a valid and updated food handler's card or need to acquire one within 30 days of hire.

If you already have a food handler's card or a serve safe certification, please email your certificate to hsdal@theservicecompanies.com

If you follow the below link to complete your food handler's card, you will find the online assessment to be affordable ($5) and informative and TSC will receive your certification and date of completion immediately following the test. We hope that this process is straightforward, however, if you have any questions, please reach out to your local staffing office. Thanks!

Please go to http://efoodhandlers.com/acrobat?emplID=56178 to take your Food Handlers certification.
Make sure you change the location to either Dallas or Fort Worth

Thank you,

Ivy Fielden
