Hello,

At The Service Companies, we spend a large majority of our time reaching out to our employees to offer them shifts. Under our new guidelines if an employee has not worked in 30 days we convert their profile status to Inactive Status. This means you will be ineligible to pick-up shifts with our company. If one day you wish to pick-ups shifts from The Service Companies again please call, or come into, our office. We will need to quickly update your file and complete new hiring documents in person. Once this is complete we can Activate your profile and you will be able to pick-up shifts freely.

If you have any questions please let us know,

Angelina Zervas
Operations Manager
