Hello James,

You were scheduled for a shift today at 10am at T-Mobile Center and the client has notified us that you have not arrived at the job site. Seeing as this is the first shift you were scheduled for since being rehired and not the only No Call No Show that has happened during your employment with us, I will have to terminate you and you will no longer be eligible to pick up shifts or be rehired.

Best,

Jaime Barnhart
