Hey Jaime, it's Chloe, I just woke up and my dog has thrown up everywhere and is shaking. I am freaking out. I have to take him to the ER. I am so so so sorry. I just don't know what else to do. I'm taking him to the emerald city er clinic. I'm really so sorry I know it's horrible to be late/call out on my second day but I don't know what else to do I've never seen woofy like this.
