Hello William,

We have been notified that you have not shown up to work today and did not notify Marcus or Chef Rob of this call out. This will be marked as a no call no show, please reach out to Marcus, or respond back to this email at your earliest convenience with an explanation for your absence.

No call no shows reflect negatively on your record with us and can lead to termination. Please keep this in mind and note that this, in addition to your last-minute request for time off last week does not allow for us to give you any leeway regarding this situation.

Best,

Jaime Barnhart
Operations Manager
