hi Gayden, I was on site and when I left at I connected with the Nowsta on site managers and seems you had not yet clocked in well after you texted here, make sure you let the managers at station 341 -level know to correct it and also text me here and let me know the name of the nowsta manager you check out with Hello Rashall, What happened today? I still dont see you clocked in or out and I never got to see you on site today.

If you claim you worked today, we are going to need the stand number and name of your supervisor in order to have the client go through the concessions stand sign in/out sheets.
