...everything is fine. I got sick but then I had complications from my car accident and took time from working. I'm still in physical therapy. I thought I was ready to go back to work when I accepted the position, unfortunately you can't rush recovery. I'm gonna have to decline the position. I don't know when I'll be ready to go back to work physically. Thank you for the opportunity and I apologize for not letting anyone know. I've been caught up in my recovery and I forget to reach out.
