Hello Patty,

Thank you for the detailed information. Once we have the timesheets as well as the Security Swipe Badge Report (if provided), we can move forward with termination. Does the client have a breakdown of the days she was over paid? I think we should hold those funds from her check before paying her out the remaining hours.

Thank you,

Amber Dillon

Hi all,

Please read the email below from Tamika, the Service Manager at Sharp Grossmont where EE 57452 Gabriella Serrano has been working an ongoing assignment. After reading the email I had the chance to speak with Gabriela and she admitted to this. In her own words:

"I mean, I didn't want to get in trouble for always being late, I live far, and I always get traffic. It wasn't too bad, I will get there around 4:00, 4:15 and edit my time at 3:00, they were constantly (f word) getting on me for not wearing the proper uniform when everyone else wears whatever they want, at least I'd finish my job on time, I'm faster than everyone there and they were getting on me for that (s word) too. I don't know, I just didn't want to get in trouble, and I didn't always correct my time only a few times. I can pay the money back, if they want to, I can pay the money back and I understand if you have to fire me because they fired me, I'll look for another job.

I told her that I would have to pass the notes of our conversation to HR and we would reach out to her once the investigation was over.

I asked Tamika for the timesheets, and she will be sending those over.

Thank you!

Subject: Gabriella Alamilla

Hi Patricia, I'm sending this email in regards to Gabriella Alamilla. We will no longer be utilizing her services here at Sharp Grossmont Hospital and or any entity in the Sharp and or Sodexo system.

She has been falsifying her time (Stealing). Security badge swipes has verified the aforementioned. We will not be submitting a timecard for her due to the time theft. If you have any questions regarding this, please feel free to reach out to me.
