Hello,

Michelle has informed me that this date is incorrect, and that it should actually be 5/16. She will continue working with us until then.

Best,

Hello,

Please be advised that Michelle has brought it to my attention that she will be out of work starting next week Monday 4/18, moving forward for at least the next 3 months. I have advised her that with that being said, I cannot guarantee that we will be able to bring her back in the future when it comes to whenever she will be ready and able to work and that it will depend on the need at the time.

She will be in the works of trying to extend her LOA, and I have advised her to reach back out to Sunlife.

Best,
Jaime Barnhart
