Hello and thank you for the response. According to the facility that information is false & client was told I was unavailable when trying to rehire through TSC. With that being said i'd like to resign from the company for the inconvenience/inconsistencies. Thank you.

Hello Rhuale,

I am the Director of Human Resources, and I can verify our client requires TSC employees to be fully vaccinated to work at their facility. Since your cancelation, we have tried to contact the client to see if that requirement has been lifted. Unfortunately, we have not received confirmation of the requirement being lifted and must continue to stay in compliance. As for the client directly hiring you and not requiring it, that is not or decision. At TSC, we must follow the guidelines set forth from the client.

Thank you,

Amber Dillon

Hello, I'm writing this email again in regards to my Spotify shifts. I would like to know who I can personally speak to because TSC is providing me completely different information than the client. I was offered to start as a porter through their company for on 5/30 with no vaccination requirements but apparently my shifts were cancelled by TSC due to "client requirements". The client requested for me to work at the location twice and they received no response from TSC. If possible, I would like to work with this client again through TSC as the client requested for the $20 wage I negotiated with Marlen in April as I still am having trouble making sense of all this as I'm getting told multiple different stories. Please & thank you.
