Hey Jamie wanted to let you know that I'm feeling pretty bad. Not sure if im sick or getting sick or just exhausted. Tried to rally get on my feet but it seriously feels like I got shot with a tranquilizer dart. I'm going to get back in bed and rest. I will keep you posted on my condition. I have a couple of covid test here at home so I'll be sure to test myself. Sorry for not reaching out sooner. I've been trying to write this email for a couple of hours and kept falling back asleep before I could complete it.
