Hello Jessie,

I just wanted to follow up per our conversation from earlier this morning. Stripe has decided to cancel your from your assignment due to your last-minute call outs and performance.

You will remain active in our system at TSC and Jared will be looking into other clients for you to be placed at. Your sick hours from today along with your PTO payout will be paid out next Friday per the payroll schedule.

If you have any questions or need anything please feel free to contact me.

Best,

Jaime Barnhart
