It was hugely unprofessional & rude of you to hang up on me, your managers will be hearing from me. We did not get one thank you or good job tonight. It's sad that you guys are so old and bitter, we didn't make you guys have that dead end job you're so unhappy with, so do not take it out on us. I was denied my 15 minutes break which is against the damn law. We are WORKERS NOT SERVANTS. God bless you Judy, I hope things get better in your life so your not such an ugly person toward others.

They got a 50 minute lunch break, 30 off the clock, 20 on the clock, maybe if staff arrived on time ready to work they could get a break before
