Good morning, kind of. I took 3 to make sure. I'm positive, last time I tested negative was yesterday morning, before work, I don't know if I could have gotten it at work or at home, I've been masked up and avoiding Brianna/people. I texted Andrew already and he told me to talk to you.

Hi Jaime, I just wanted to clarify what I need to do, if I test negative tomorrow do I come in? I'm also wondering if this affects the holiday pay.
Thank you

Hi Evan, I doubt that you would test negative by tomorrow, so I would advise to stay home. You'll still get holiday pay.

Hi Jaime, I just got off the phone with Andrew. I was told to contact you. My anxiety kicked in a lot this morning, making it unsafe to drive and work for me. I have a lot of symptoms surrounding the anxiety, please feel free to call me if you need to me answer any questions for you. I know you start later, thank you.
