Today 8:39 AM

Hi Jose, I got your call off for todays shift, what happened?

Hi Adam, so I didn't review the policy until I saw the parking instructions today. I have a full beard and visible tattoos even with sleeves on. It was a mistake on my part Got it, thanks for responding and being honest. Please make sure your are reading details when confirming for your shifts. Last minute callouts make it hard to replace you lan's cause us to be short with our clients. Have a good rest of your weekend.
