and I'll inform my team. Thank you!

Hey Shante, just heads up

Understood thank you

Please let me know if you need anything. Also how will this affect your guys schedule?

looks as if we have to start later than usual on Tuesday and leave early, Wednesday just starting late it looks but how late? And how early on Tuesday, I can't catch the transit in the wee hours of the morning 😞

Also I've decided as of March 31st I will no longer be living in Seattle Washington so this is me putting in my two week notice.
