VALIDATE: 1) sender email suffix logical?; 2) language spelling/context appropriate? consider clicking if; immediately following a meeting/discussion. Research further if; 1) sent out of the blue even from a trusted person; 2) suspicious link content. SUSPICIOUS: create new message to sender, do not reply, and seek validation if suspicious. Trusted sender? add them to our trusted list, <https://tsc.fyi/TrustedSender>

I was not canceled from the convention center I chose to leave that day. It's funny you mention my professionalism if I was so unprofessional why would multiple sous chefs tell me they wanted me back at Davis in the fall. You're going off the word of a click that is lying on my name. And that's fine if you don't want to give me the information my attorney will obtain it from you. Just thought this would be easier. Have a great day

Hello Brandon,

At this time we can no longer offer you employment due to being canceled from two locations because of the feedback we have received regarding your professionalism. Unfortunately, we cannot provide you with the information you are requesting because this pertains to UC Davis employees and we do not have the option to provide information regarding UC Davis employees.

When you and Christian connected on the allegations that were brought forward, you denied them and are denying them in your email below, however, we have received confirmation that unprofessional behavior was witnessed by other UC Davis employees.

Best wishes,

Subject: Termination

Good morning I would like a copy of everything UC Davis sent you in order for you guys to terminate my shifts with them as well as the service company. I want to see every email between the service company and either the chefs or HR. I was never given a chance to tell my side of the story which there's nothing to tell because everything I'm being accused of is absolutely false. I want to see what I supposedly said that was a physical threat. I need to see witness statements. I would like all this information. I've been wrongfully accused and wrongfully terminated. Even as a temp employee I still have rights. So please send all documentation you have on me. Have a great day
