Thank you for being patient and understanding during this interview process with us at The Service Companies. At this time our client has asked us to pause any hiring for open positions at the location. This is in no way a reflection of you or your abilities.

Due to their request, we are unable to schedule new interviews or reschedule any previous interviews we had to cancel.

As a result, we must withdraw your contingency offer as our client has chosen not to move forward with the process.

We would like to extend the opportunity to reapply when new positions open up and should you have interest, we can reach out to you as a priority when available.

Thank you for considering The Service Companies for your career opportunity and we look forward to potentially working with you in the future.
