Good morning. I know I probably don't have a temporary job there anymore but I just wanted to let you all know anyways that I wasn't able to make it in this morning because my grandma passed away and I wasn't able to get myself together. I apologize for being unprofessional. Thank you.

My condolences Edgar, I am sorry to hear that. I spoke with the kitchen managers, and they are willing to have you come back next week for the coverage shifts we discussed. if you want to stay on the schedule for next week, please let me know.

Hi Edgar,

Since you did not show up to your scheduled shift for today either, I have removed you off of the schedule, you'll still be active in The Service Companies system but no longer eligible to be assigned shifts at Stripe due to the lack of communication.
