Hi Cordell,

Please make sure you are not taking breaks that extend past the allotted time, everyone gets two 10 minute breaks and one 30 minute lunch. This is an issue that will contribute to your assignment getting cancelled at this client location.

Hi Cardell,

Are you still here at work?

Hi Cordell,

Currently no one has seen you in the dishroom since 10am, and no one is aware of where you are. I have tried calling you and your phone goes straight to voicemail. Please reach out or let me know what is going on as soon as possible.

Good afternoon Jaime I have decided to resign due to the disrespect and uncomfortable circumstances I have been in for the past week ,I have been respectful and kind to everyone in the facility and I have put up with it long enough ,I appreciate the opportunity but this job isn't a good fit for me anymore ,they way your employees treat others is highly unacceptable and ridiculous and uncomfortable

If my last check may be sent out within the next couple days that would be great ,have a great day

Hi Cordell,

Can you let me know of the details in which you are saying you were treated with disrespect or what may have made you feel uncomfortable as we take these claims very seriously and I would like to escalate it to my Human Resources Department.

I will move forward with your resignation.
