Hello Aireonna, we have the correct email, yes. It's the same email I sent you the hiring steps. You'll have to always check spam.

The managers did say that they reached out to you this past Saturday. I also seen an email to reach out to you for an upcoming training, unless you were reached out to already

Saturday 6:18 PM

Thank you. After consideration of inconsistency with communication and unprofessional behavior I would like to resign from position. I appreciate all that you, Seluvaia have done but I would like to no longer but be hired by the Service

Company. I thank you.
