Hey jonnie as a reminder you are actually scheduled to work at Brentwood at the Carondelet Center - You are still arriving there as scheduled 1030am today right?

MM

I thought I was only a back-up? I can't walk that far.

Marlen

no

the other girl called out sick and this is why back ups are important can you please arrive since you never communicated a call out?

MM

It would take me over an hour to walk up that hill from where the bus drops me off down by the fwy. I did not know that I have to walk that far at first.

Marlen

Jonnie if you do not arrive this will result in a no show - You were scheduled well in advance to figure out your commute this is a new client and we cannot come up short - can you please make the arrangements to arrive?
