monitored their instructions, changed it to their client's coat and apron, and was their dishwasher for the whole shift that day. How can they say they never saw me?

If I don't get paid for that shift at Mt St. Mary's, then don't bother calling me again.

OK the location you were assigned to work at was no "Bon Appetit" the client location was Sister's of St Joseph Carondelet Center. And the Manager name and number was on the confirmation email for this shift.

MM

This property in fact has two different businesses on site and Bon Appetit had no affiliation with this request.

Ant to Clarify you have never been placed at Mt St Mary's with TSC.

MM

That was the location. So, why did they let me work if I was at the wrong place?

Marlon

I will need to escalate this to HR considering this is now two missed shifts for the same location but as far as any labor performed for Bon Appetit, TSC has not contract with that venue/group to inquire about payment. HR or I will circle back if anything further is required from you at this time

I am afraid I have no answer for your rhetorical question unfortunately. We have no contacts with Bon Appetit at this property

MM

SCREW YOU!

Don't bother me again
