Hi Team, we have an open shift at Wind Creek Saturday 3pm- 1030pm, please reply here if you are available and want to work this shift.

Fuck you. Take me off your fucking list and pay me my last check. You imbeciles are going to hear from me in court. I promise that! You weren't allowed to put me down to not have shifts legally because I had a medical emergency. Hope yall got good lawyers 😂

Hi John Paul, thank you for responding, I do not know what you are referring to about being told you cannot work. I see you were scheduled to work June 5th but did not arrive. Can you let me know what pay check you have not received? The Service Companies accepts your resignation.
