Employment

Bergdorf & Baroness Wine Cellars

Leavenworth, WA 2013

There were two wineries and a retail store where I worked so I had many responsibilities. For the wineries I did tasting at both and was required to be knowledgeable of all the wines offered, I waxed and labeled bottles, washed dishes and stocked. For the retail store I received products, did inventory, priced and set up the displays. I ran the registers for all of them.

Farm Stand on the Gorge

Hood River, OR 2012-2013

When was first hired I worked as a sandwich maker and cashier. I then became the main food preparer, making soups, slicing meats, making salads for the deli and grocery store and baked gluten-free vegan cookies.

Mt. Hood Meadows

Mt. Hood, OR 2011-2012

For the first two months I worked as a Food and Beverage Team Member at the Schuss. I was responsible for preparing orders, serving and cashiering. I was also an expeditor on the busier days. I then transferred to being a Lift Operator so that I could work outside and more closely with the guests. As a Lift Operator I shovel, set up lift mazes, form ramps, load/unload guests from the chairlifts and scan tickets/passes. I also constantly assist and educate the proper protocol for loading and unloading the chair lifts.

Treetops Canopy Tour

Lansing, WV Seasons 2009 & 2010

Being a canopy tour guide included extensive training, passing the final test and monthly rescue procedures. I was responsible for taking up to 9 people out on ten zip lines, across five sky bridges and a 40 foot belay off of the last platform. I constantly taught about local nature, history and continuously taught how to properly zip.

Star One Staffing

Madison, WI 2002-2007 & 2010

Through Star One Staffing I was hired as a banquet server. I was sent to various catering events ranging from political events of 1800+ people to small company picnics and was responsible for setting up, serving and cleaning up banquets. When I went to Madison in 2010 I was sent to a dorm café to work as a cashier and cook.

Alfalfa's Restaurant

Lexington, KY 2008

Alfalfa's Restaurant was an organic vegetarian style restaurant that I was a server and hostess at. It was my responsibility to prepare various ice teas in the morning, serve, bus, seat and clean restaurant at end of my shift. I worked lunch, dinner and weekend brunches.

Inn on the Park Best Western

Madison, WI 2003-2004 & 2006-2007

At Inn on the Park I was employed in the restaurant and the catering department. In the restaurant I served in the restaurant and lounge, bussed tables, hosted, and took care of room service orders. In the catering department I set up, served and took down banquets. I was also responsible for taking orders and serving all employees.
