Summary

3 Years experience in customer sales. I am an effective sales rep to a company, I meet and exceed quotas. I am always looking to broaden my knowledge in different fields to raise my level of experience. I enjoy working hard, I do not object to long, productive days. I am punctual, I pay attention to detail, I am easy to get along with, and feel I grow from constructive criticism. I value work related friendships and the respect of co-workers, and managers. Previous employers have considered me to be a valuable employee, and I work to protect that reputation.
