Skills: Very familiar with communicating with customers in a cheerful respectful manner. I have a very good work ethic and am a quick learner. I am always on time to work with the exception of an unexpected circumstance (sick, unplanned traffic, family emergency, etc.) and I have reliable transportation. I was a supervisor in my previous seasonal position so I am a trusted employee(proof of employment can be provided). I have a wide range of skills and am capable of any task. I am not a shy person and I enjoy helping customers feel satisfied and welcomed. I can communicate with customers in a professional manner and take customer service my main priority.
