Active in CDC Long Beach, CA (2005 –Present)

I have been volunteering in Long Beach at King Park and various other CDC (child development center) sites. What I do is basically play with the children, help them with arts and crafts, counting, and other academics. Also during recess I serve as a sort of "Big Brother" to kids, and have been teaching them sports and other ways to express themselves positively, such as acting and drama for years.
