SUMMARY

Hello, my name is Samantha. I received my high school diploma and am currently attending college at Ohlone community college. I have experience in the cuisine industry and have worked many catering events in the past. I have been employed at many restaurants, which gave me experience in customer service and handling food. Also, I worked multiple events with and was employed at JW catering, giving me the opportunity to further my knowledge, leadership skills, and on-the-job experience.
