

Phil Mayer
227 Naglee Ave.
San Francisco, CA 94112
(760)407-2065
philipamayer@hotmail.com

Interested in serving and bartending. Available immediately and at all times. Full time preferred

Restaurant Experience:

Palomino: 345 Spear St. San Francisco

- Bartender July 2015 – Present

Palomino is an extremely high volume corporate establishment catering to the upscale happy hour crowd.

Marrakech: 419 O'Farrell St. San Francisco

- Head Bartender March 2014 – June 2015
- Made all alcoholic beverages for bar, restaurant area, and downstairs magic show guests
- Handled all inventory for bar area
- Instilled more sanitary and professional practices to the restaurant's bar program

Marrakech is a unique restaurant and nightclub in the Tenderloin. They specialize in Moroccan cuisine but cater to the entire Near and Middle Eastern world while welcoming people of all cultures. Bartending can be challenging as most of the clientele are not fully unaccustomed to bars and alcohol.

Tryst: 2459 18th St. NW Washington DC

- April 2010 – June 2013
- Manager, server, bartender

Tryst is one of the coolest spots in Adams Morgan, one of the most vibrant neighborhoods in Washington, DC. It has a definite hipster vibe to it, but also has the widest selection of spirits on the strip. During the day, its hipsters blogging over lattes, at night its people conversing over Belgian beers and cocktails with live jazz in the background. It's a great place to take friends, your parents, dates, or to chill by yourself.

Reference:

1. Geraldine Galdamez, Manager of Tryst, (703) 309 1866, galdamezg@vcu.edu
2. Elias Montilla, General Manager of Tryst, (202) 232 5500, elias@trystdc.com
3. Nader Shashin, Owners of Marrakech, (415) 948 5788

Other Interests:

- People generally think I am a hard-working, amusing guy. I like making money in restaurants, I also like making friends. To do that I work hard with a great attitude.
- I speak conversational level Spanish and have reliable transportation.
- I have several outside interests. Presently I am mostly focused on writing fiction.