Objective:

- To take on the challenge as a pastry entry level position that will allow me to utilize my creative artistic abilities in contribution to your company. I am an eager and hardworking individual who has a passion for creating pastries and desserts of the highest quality and takes pride in displaying eye-capturing treats. With my stellar GPA and near flawless attendance at Le Cordon Bleu, this highlights my sense of responsibility and tenacity for commitment and dedication to advancing my career in the food industry. I have my own little business in which I am able to incorporate my skills on a frequent basis. Some of my work is displayed on Instagram at mysweet_littlekitchen. However, with the right training, mentorship, and guidance I believe I can perfect my skills.
