

Brad Joseph Dubin

Cell: (510) 457-6425

E-mail: bj-dubin@hotmail.com

Objective

To make a positive contribution in the arts working with children and adults.

Experience

Van Hulle Assoc. Architecture Firm - Personal Chef - Emeryville, CA 9/2015 - 8/2016

Esalen Institute – Wrangler/Chef/Musician 1997 - 2004

Tassajara Hot Springs – Wrangler/Chef/Musician

Window to the West – Wrangler/Chef/Musician

Inch by Inch School - Music Instructor – Oakland, CA 2015 - 4/2016

Lead regular music classes for 15 children ages 3 to 5. Teaching drumming, singing, and sharing original songs about nature while incorporating movement and meditation.

Drama Coach - The Actor's Center of San Francisco 2013 - 2014

Led workshops and classes with strong emphasis on movement, improvisation and scene study with and independently of Shelley Mitchell.

Stepping Stones Project - Berkeley, CA 2013 - 2014

Mentoring group of 11 and 12 year olds as they connect with nature in the wilderness. Taught mindfulness with respect for community, how to cook, camp, and think practically in unpredictable situations.

Anna Yates Elementary School - Volunteer Teacher - Emeryville, CA 2012 - 2014

Led weekly, hour-long music classes for grades 1-2. Taught folk-style music, made instruments from household objects, and led classroom in playing and singing songs.

Elemental Arts - Private Music Instructor - CA 2012-Present

Taught piano, guitar, drums, wind instruments, synthesizer, and percussion to children and adult students.

Miss Tamara's Music Gym - Music Teacher - Montclair, CA 2013-2014

Instructed children age 10-14 in ensemble, group piano and guitar, technique and composition. All levels included.