Objective:

Retail / Sales / Merchandising / Customer Service
Restaurant / Cook, Food Prep / Warehousing
Entertainment / Casino & Gaming
Horse Racing - Landscaping

Experience: General / Skilled Labor 08/16 - 05/18

Help homeowners with chores, errands, cutting grass, shovel snow for them, pick-up dry cleaning, etc. Labor work when needed done for a specific time. Go to grocery store, pharmacy, buy food and drinks, party supplies, etc.

Experience: Maintenance / Supervisor Jorge's Landscaping Homestead, FL 10/12 - 04/16

Position: Landscape Supervisor, Landscaping, pruning plants, greenery, blowing dusty, dirty, leafy places.
Picking up trash around property (ies) areas
Pressure washing & maintaining, grounds-keeping.
Clean / repair items / tools assigned, sweep & mop working areas
Supervising / helping someone else in other assigned tasks as needed.
Make repairs by doing carpentry or handyman tasks as needed.
Some contracts, (and / or) clients are seasonal and I'd like to look for a more traditional way to make a living by finding a job.

I've applied for fulltime (prefer), and even parttime or seasonal jobs, but due to the US economical situation and employers flooded with other applicants makes it harder to land a job or at least secure an interview. So I've got high hope to find a career or job and I'm ready to start as soon as possible.

Experience: Maintenance Dept. 10/11 - 12/12
Gulfstream Casino Hallandale, FL

Building up, ensemble and removing metal rails to different measurements for horse racing.
Planting / spreading grass seeds/ Removing weeds, and other bad grasses.
Cutting plywood sheets and checking for damages the used ones, and removing /replacing the old, broken ones into the trash container in the facility.
Laying down on the grass some plywood to protect it from being teared up by the heavy tractor carrying horse cages, when they would have races on the grass.
Cleaning promo signs around Casino Racing grounds.

Helping someone else in other depts; if requested by other supervisor(s).

Make repairs by helping carpenters or handyman tasks as needed.

Some positions are seasonal and I was laid-off, but only after they've hired back employees with seniority priority and told some could not be called back for new season.

Also new company owners made a budget-cut, including limit of 40 hours per week, not allowing overtime work to be done.

As a seasonal job it ended, with possibility to go back if called or if needed extra personnel.

Experience: Overnight Cook / Server - Room Service 6/07 - 8/10
Table 8 Restaurant 14 Ocean Drive Miami Beach, Fl 33139

Cooking orders placed by guests. Limited overnight menu of 6 items.

Deliver food orders to & serve in room / porch, rooftop / pool requested by guests.

Preparing ingredients for cooking items on overnight menu.

Set up working area, spoons, cups, plates, tea pots, etc.

Set up wheeled serving tables with proper clothes, covers, to have a professionally look and prestige according to the restaurant guidelines.

As general sales/ seller of products, my job was to sell from the whole restaurant menu, including foods, desserts, drinks, alcohol, sundries.

I'd offer beers and wines from the list, as well as liquor like vodka, rum, gin, etc.

I'd always try to sell / upsell items, if a costumer called for only an item like food, I'd ask and try to sell a dessert, fruit or pastry to them, and so on something related to their order.

My job was also to check and make sure all of the items on the menu were available, most of the items were pre-done by the dayshift staff like the prep-cooks or chefs, if some items were depleted by the day or night shift, (cut fruits, slice / cut cheese, dice peppers and onions, cut cooked chicken and with mix with mayo for the chicken salad sandwich, etc) I'd have to prepare them in order to have them ready for my shift.

Laid-off from this position (overnight) because the economy started getting bad, and was told I could be rehired if they would open it again. Called back to check but the position was still closed & the Restaurant actually closed as well after they went bankrupt in that place.

The restaurant was on the 1st floor and the hotel operating at that time was The Regent.

When the restaurant was short of staff, like someone calling in sick or other reason, the supervisor would call me and offer me to cover for that person and I would do the same but not cooking since the day chefs were at work on those 1st and 2nd shifts. But I would be the same Room service attendant and server. Another part of those shifts were; Inventory, counting and maintaining log for amounts of products, and ordering products to suppling company.

Experience: General Labor / Janitorial / Housekeeping 10/05 - 6/08
Sevilla Labor Services 1200 20 St, Miami, Fl 33145
