For your records, the "Basic Safety Course" is a designated food safety training activity for food handlers.
Handy, fast and convenient, this course is a great way to keep your food safety knowledge up to date. It's completely voluntary, completely flexible, and "on your time".
Use your own computer, if necessary, for the download, or if download is not working

Please keep this certificate in a safe place. You may need it to prove you are a qualified food handler when applying for a food handler permit or when you are asked to show proof of training.

The "Basic Safety Course" is a product of eFoodHandlers, Inc. © 2019 eFoodHandlers, Inc.
