To Whom It May Concern;

It is my understanding Pamela Stathos is a candidate for a position with your organization.

Pamela has been a student in several of my Culinary courses at American River College. I have found her to be dedicated and hard-working. She goes over and above what is expected of her in all of her endeavors. She is the student who has the right answers during class discussions. Her work is nothing less than exceptional.

My colleagues and I consider her to be a strong, committed student. Our program is often called upon to participate in public events and Ms. Stathos often takes the lead. Pamela can always be counted on to represent our program during these events in a competent, capable and professional manner.

Pamela Stathos is a person I feel comfortable recommending on a level I reserve for few individuals. She is a person of high intellect, pure values and over-the-top commitment.

Please contact me with any questions.

Sincerely,

Teresa Urkofsky
