Work Experience

Front of House Manager

The Quarters - Auburn, WA

February 2019 to Present

Solely running and working the FOH for a well established and highly successful New Orleans style restaurant. I plan and execute all events, as well as dealing with all financial aspects and record keeping. My reason for moving positions that the owner, whom has been a long time friend of mine, was battling terminal cancer and could no longer work. She has recently passed and the restaurant will be closing soon.

Assistant Manager

Panera Bread -American Bread Company - Issaquah, WA

February 2017 to February 2019

Managing a fast-paced restaurant while adhering to strict guidelines set by Panera. Within two months of taking over food budget and management, I dropped our cafe's food budget from 5.7% to 3.1%. Within a month of taking over scheduling management I've brought our labor down 3% while working with 30 employees.

General Manager

Odin Brewing Company - Tukwila, WA

October 2015 to January 2017

In addition to normal bartending job duties, I'm responsible for payroll, scheduling, hiring and firing, budgeting, ordering, stocking, as well as merchandising, event management and social media advertisement.

Assistant Manager

Airways Brewing Company

December 2013 to October 2015

Often worked alone for a 65 seat establishment with table service. Responsible for ordering, stocking and organizing materials and merchandise for the restaurant. Responsible for training and handling large groups and events at the Bistro. Have worked many events and festivals on behalf of the brewery.

Warehouse Manager/Mad Scientist

Mad Science - Bellevue, WA

January 2011 to November 2013

I worked as a Mad Scientist until I was promoted to Warehouse Manager. Mad Science is an after school science program for children K-5 that intends to make science fun. I taught classes, prepared and created classes, did inventory, stocking, and ordering.

Bartender

Poppa's Pub - Kent, WA
